Launching & Boat Storage: Launching will be available at the John Wayne Marina. Please note the marina is paid a separate launch fee by boat owners. Boats may be stored overnight at the marina.

Accommodations: We have reserved the group camping area at the John Wayne Waterfront Resort which is across the street from the marina. Campsites are $35 per night. The camping area also has showers and a small store. Call 360-681-3853 to make reservations and mention you are with the Sequim Bay Regatta. The Resort also has RV spaces and a number of cabins for rent. Website: <http://www.johnwaynewaterfrontresort.com/>

Other camping is available at the Sequim Bay State Park. The State Park is located about 1.5 miles south of the marina. Sailors can reserve camp spaces at the park by calling 888-226-7688 or by going online at <https://washington.goingtocamp.com/> .

There are a number of nice motels and B&Bs in the city of Sequim.

Saturday Dinner: Dinner will be available at the SBYC Yacht Club after racing on Saturday. Cost is $7 and includes burgers or hot dogs and sides. The club bar will be open for no-host beverages. Racers and guests are urged to pre-purchase dinners so that we can estimate numbers.

Safety: All boats must meet their class association rules and US Coast Guard safety regulations.

Disclaimer of Liability: Competitors participate in SBYC Regatta entirely at their own risk. See rule RRS 4, Decision to Race. The organizing authority will not accept any liability for material damage or personal injury or death sustained in conjunction with or prior to, during, or after the regatta.
