6. Inspection and Measurement

6.1. Boats, gear, and sails may be inspected by the Technical Committee at any time for conformance to Class Rules. Competitors shall use only one hull, mainsail, spinnaker, two jibs, mast, boom and rudder.

6.2. Sails must have the full sail number applied in accordance with Class Rules, and sails must have class approval.

6.3. VHF radios are allowed for communications with the Race Committee (RC) per ILCA By-Laws, Article VIII, 5. (b) (4) A. Use of hand-held VHF radios will be permitted only for communication from the Race Committee to competitors on a predetermined channel to be identified in the Supplementary Sailing Instructions. The Race Committee intends to use VHF radio to identify OCS (On Course Side of the line) boats after starts and otherwise communicate with the fleet on the water. Failure to receive a hail, for a hail to be made, the order of hails made, or receive other communications to the fleet shall not be cause for redress.

Other use of any communication device is prohibited and such use shall require withdrawal from the race unless determined by the Race Committee to have been for emergency purposes. Failure to receive a hail, for a hail to be made, the order of hails made, or receive other communications to the fleet shall not be cause for redress. Such radios are "Safety Equipment."

6.4 Class mandated safety equipment required in accordance with VI.2 of the ILCA Document Governing shall be carried.

7. Sailing Instructions

Supplementary sailing instructions will be available at registration, and online after 11 January at the regatta website.

8. Venue

The racing area will be Lake Monroe, Sanford, Florida.

9. The Courses

Courses will be as illustrated in the diagrams in the Standard Sailing Instructions.

10. Scoring

10.1. A minimum of one race is required to be completed to constitute a regatta.

10.2. When fewer than 6 races have been completed, a boat's series score will be the total of her race scores. When 6 or more races have been completed, a boat's series score will be the total of her race scores excluding her worst score. This changes RRS Appendix A2.

11. Prizes

Prizes will be awarded to the top three finishers.

12. Disclaimer of Liability

Competitors participate in the regatta entirely at their own risk. See RRS 4, Decision to Race. The organizing authority will not accept any liability for material damage or personal injury or death sustained in conjunction with or prior to, during, or after the regatta.
