

Freeport/Surfside Information

Texas Race Week 2012

July 19-21

Arrival at Freeport Marina

The Brazosport Yacht Club plans to welcome you to Freeport with refreshments Friday morning. Dock your boat in an unoccupied slip on DOCK F. This is the second dock and is just before the bridge.

There are showers and bathrooms inside the Dry Stack building as well as in a portable building under the bridge. The Dry Stack building will be locked at night.

If you are staying at a hotel and need a ride from the marina, coordinate with Beverly. Her cell number is 713-385-7747. After 1500 the shuttle will be running from the marina to Ocean Village and Cherotel.

Shuttle to Ocean Village

A 15-passenger van will be shuttling sailors between the Municipal Marina, Ocean Village (Surfside), and Cherotel (Lake Jackson) on Friday and Saturday between 1500 and 2300.

Ice

Near Marina – Ice is available at the Dollar store (but it ain't $1.00!) and the gas station next to it. Angie the Harbormaster will take you there in a golf cart.

Buc-ees – There is a Buc-ees between Surfside and the Marina at the intersection of Hwy 332 and FM523.

Breakfast

Near Marina – Port Café has a good breakfast. Angie the Harbor Mistress can shuttle you to and from Port Cafe in her golf cart.

Surfside – Pirates Alley serves breakfast.

Lunch

If you ordered sandwiches for Saturday, they will be delivered to the marina Saturday morning at about 0900.

Fuel

Boat fuel is available at Surfside Marina, which is just south of the 332 bridge on the Gulf side of the ICW. The phone number is (979) 230-9400.

Skin Cancer Screening

Free MD Anderson skin cancer screening at Pirate's Alley Café (next to Ocean Village).
Friday from 1500 to 1800. The life you save could be your own!
