

CARDBOARD KAYAK RACE

Sunday, September 14, 2014, 1 PM
Santa Cruz Harbor Launch Ramp

As part of the harbor's 50th anniversary celebration, the Santa Cruz Port District and Santa Cruz Yacht Club Corinthians, will host its first ever Cardboard Kayak Race at Santa Cruz Harbor!

Highlight your skills and ingenuity in this creative, fun, and wacky competition. A variety of prizes will be awarded in each category!

EVENT DIVISIONS:

Build-at-Home:

Pre-registration is required.
Space is limited to 30 teams.
Registration Fee: $25

Thoughtful design is key in the build-at-home division. Teams must construct a functional kayak at home from an approved list of materials (supplied by entrant), and race to the finish line on the day of the event. Broad design specifications must be met.

One-Hour Kayak:

Pre-registration is recommended, but not required. Space is limited to 30 teams.
Registration Fee: $40

Spontaneous, on-the-spot cardboard kayak construction in one hour! Teams of up to four participants are supplied with cardboard, duct tape, a utility knife, and marker, and must create a functional cardboard kayak, ready for the water. All materials will be supplied.
