Teams traveling to the Junior Olympics and requiring overnight accommodations have several options, listed here from least to most expensive. Hotel room blocks expire at the end of May!

Local host homes: Several of our MHYC members are opening up their homes for this event. If you prefer to camp in a tent on a lawn within walking distance of MHYC, or if you prefer to sleep in a cozy bed, let us know! Space is limited, so first come, first served. To request yard space or rooms, email mhycsailcamp@gmail.com by June 10 with the following information: Number of adults, number of sailors, team name/Club affiliation, adult contact email and cell.

MHYC Beach Camping: MHYC has approved the use of the West Beach for RVs and Campers. (No tents). Port-a-potties will be made available, and shower/bath facilities are within walking distance under the Club pool deck. First come, first served. To request a spot for your vehicle on the beach, email mhycsailcamp@gmail.com by June 10 with the following information: Number of adults, number of sailors, team name/Club affiliation, adult contact email and cell.

Andrews Osborne Academy Dorms – Located just 15 minutes from MHYC, Andrews Osborne Academy has opened up 30 beds to Junior Olympics sailors, and parents or coaches, in its upper school dorms on its beautiful 300 acre campus. Sleep 2-4 to a room, bring your own bedding. Kitchen is available for use, but all sailor and coach meals will be included in your registration fee. Cost is $25 per person to reserve your rooms for the weekend. Coffee and juice will be provided in the morning at AOA, with breakfast served at MHYC. Adult supervision is required to stay at the dorms. Space is limited, so first come, first served. To request rooms, email mhycsailcamp@gmail.com by June 10 with the following information: Number of adults, number of sailors, team name/Club affiliation, adult contact email and cell, and estimated time of arrival.
