

MARINA DEL REY SAILORS:

David Doeh.. thank you David ... went out on the water and captured all of Redondo Beach marks in the format we are all used to. These were shot at the marks and are deemed correct. With that statement, we will not take any responsibility if there happens to be an error.

Cheers,

Kathy St. Amant
Regatta Chair

A handwritten table on a piece of paper with two columns of numbers and a row of letters. Above the first column is the number '33' with an 'N' below it. Above the second column is the number '118' with a 'W' below it. The table has 8 rows, each starting with a letter (T, A, F, G, Y, J, K, H) followed by two columns of numbers. The numbers are separated by a vertical line. The first column of numbers has a decimal point, and the second column of numbers has a space between the first two digits.
