

CAROLINA YACHT CLUB

ESTABLISHED 1883

Dear Fellow E Scow Sailors,

Welcome to the Carolina Yacht Club.

We are proud to host the 2017 E Scow National Championship and hope that your visit with us will be memorable. Our Regatta Committee and our Staff have worked hard to make this an enjoyable event for you, both on and off the water. Our Club is open to your teams for the event and we hope that you will find the best of everything the Carolina Yacht has to offer.

Enclosed you will find the contact information for our staff as well as some local resources. Please do not hesitate to call them for assistance with anything at the Club or in Charleston. You will also find enclosed a guide to the Club parking, dining, facilities, dress code and Club rules. Since we last hosted this event in 2007, we have renovated both of our main buildings and substantially expanded our marina. We hope you will have time to enjoy one or more of our dining venues and our formal bar overlooking Charleston Harbor and the Battery.

Please enjoy your week at the Carolina Yacht Club, sail fast and have fun!

Yours Truly,

Miles H. Martschink

Club Rules in regards to Parking, Dining, Facilities, and Dress Code

PARKING:

We have far more dock space than ground space. Each boat will be issued one (1) parking pass. Parking is first come, first serve. Please do not park in the “member reserved” spaces.

Guest cars without parking passes will need to park offsite. We have an offsite parking area for vehicles and/or trailers on the corner of Lockwood Dr. and Broad St. (approx. 310 Broad St.).

No parking allowed in the boat yard, North of the boathouse.

FACILITIES:

- Power and water are available on the dock, and in the boat yard.
- Restrooms and showers are available in the Boat House and in the trailer.
- To access the boathouse facilities, use the West door.
Enter code “1-3-5” and turn the knob clockwise.
