Greetings Laser Sailors!

Sailing instructions are attached. They are also available for download on the event web site under Race Documents, and a copy will be affixed to the notice board. Accordingly, no paper copies will be distributed at registration.

An email with final logistics and other non-racing event notes will be distributed later today. As with this and all other emails, a PDF will also be posted on the event web site under Race Documents.

Please reach out to me with questions. Given the volume of questions and my attempt to work a bit this week, texting is preferred.

Thanks,

Bill Vogel
