14. PROHIBITED SUBSTANCES

No participant or competitor shall use or possess, either on or off the water: 1. marijuana or any other substance if possession is illegal under state or federal law; or 2. any alcoholic beverages. B. An alleged breach of one of these regulations shall not be grounds for a protest. However, when the protest committee believes that a competitor may have breached one of these regulations, it shall follow the process described in the US Sailing Code of Conduct. If a competitor found to have breached one of the elements within the Code of Conduct, they shall be excluded from the remaining races of the series and, where practicable, removed from the regatta venue and sent home. The competitor's boat shall be disqualified from all races of the series.

15. DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITY

Sailing is an activity that has an inherent risk of damage and injury. Competitors in this race participate entirely at their own risk. See RRS 4, Decision to Race. The race organizers (OA, Ratings Authority, Race Committee, Protest Committee, host club, sponsors, or any other organization or official) will not be responsible for damage to any boat or other property or the injury to any competitor, including death, sustained as a result of participation in this race. By participating in this race, each competitor agrees to release the race organizers from any and all liability associated with such competitor's participation in this event to the fullest extent permitted by law.

16. COVID PREVENTION

We encourage all participants to wear masks/buffs when on land at Ken Thompson Park or Sarasota Sailing Squadron. We encourage all spectators and sailors to maintain a 6ft safe social distance when possible. We also ask spectators not to gather in large groups. Additional information on COVID policy may be included in race documents closer to the event.

Appendix A -- ADULT RESPONSIBILITY AND SUPPORT (COACH AND SPECTATOR) VESSELS

[Discretionary Penalties may apply to competitors and support personnel breaking these rules.]

- Visiting coach boats must use the city boat ramp at Ken Thompson Park for launching and hauling.
- All coaches, parents, guardians, and 'designated adults' are defined as support persons under the Racing Rules of Sailing. Support Persons are obliged under RRS 1.1 to 'give all possible help to any person or vessel in danger.' Support Persons are obliged under rule 37 to monitor the Race Committee communication channel for search and rescue instructions when code flag V is displayed.
- In addition to the requirements of RRS 4 Decision to Race, an adult (parent, guardian, or designated adult) is responsible for the safety of their competitor. It is the responsibility of this adult to decide if their competitor should sail in the weather and sea conditions that might arise during the event. The adults supervising the competitors are ultimately responsible for the risks.
- Parents not personally attending any part of the event shall ensure that another adult is authorized and designated to make these decisions for their sailor.
- Parents not personally attending any part of the event shall ensure that another adult is authorized and designated to make these decisions for their sailor.
- The designated adult shall accept full responsibility for all actions of the competitor during any activity related to the event. This includes onshore activities before, during, and after the regatta.

- The organizing authority strongly recommends that each sailor have a support (coach or spectator) vessel on the racecourse throughout the regatta.
- Each support vessel shall have a working VHF radio and monitor the radio, an anchor suitable for anchoring in the waiting area, and a basic first aid kit.
- All support vessels shall be equipped with a functioning engine safety cut-out switch (kill switch) which shall always remain attached to the operator while the engine is running.
- There shall be no unmanned aerial vehicle (UAV) drone flight permitted above the racing area, waiting area, corridor, coach/spectator boat zones, start line or finish line.
