LAUNCHING:

LLSC has two boat ramps, one in Lot A and one in Lot B.

COMMUNICATIONS:

The Skipper's Meeting and other Communications with competitors may be made using VHF radio. All competitors are encouraged to bring a VHF radio for use during the regatta.

PENALTIES:

A boat shall take a One Turn Penalty when she may have broken one or more rules of Part 2. This changes Rule 44.1.

SCORING:

The Low Point Scoring System in Appendix A of the RRS will be used to score the regatta. If 6 or more races are completed, the competitor's highest score (worst finish) will be discarded in determining the competitor's total score for the regatta.

To be scored for a race, the competitor must finish the race within 30 minutes of the finishing time of the first boat to finish the race in her class.

TROPHIES:

Trophies will be awarded to the skippers and crews of the top 5 finishing Flying Scots. A single race will constitute a regatta.

ACCOMODATIONS:

Great camping is available on the club grounds, located close to the clubhouse. Most sites have a picnic table, parking area. There several fire pits on club grounds. Showers are located near the Lot A launch ramp.

Some Flying Scot fleet members may be able to house crews for the weekend. If you are interested in staying with a fleet member, please contact Bill Harshman, wharshman@harshmancpa.com or (404) 502-1593) for availability.
