LAUDERDALE YACHT CLUB

~Guest Policy~

- Guests are permitted at the Lauderdale Yacht Club (LYC) when accompanied or sponsored by an LYC Member or when visiting from another yacht club with which LYC offers reciprocity.
 - For reciprocal FCYC guests, if the yacht club is a member of the Florida Council of Yacht Clubs (FCYC), then a letter of introduction is not necessary.
 - For reciprocal Non-FCYC guests, a letter of introduction written by the Membership Director or General Manager must be emailed in advance of each visit to memberservices@LYC1938.org.
- A Guest Card is required for any guest who is on-premises [without the sponsoring Member].
- A Guest Cardholder shall be entitled to all the privileges of the Club for personal use only, and shall be subject to any fees normally imposed for use of Club facilities.
- A Guest Card may be issued to the same person for a maximum duration of one consecutive week in a six-month period.
 - However, for FCYC guests, a Guest Card may be issued for a maximum of one consecutive week in a three-month period.
 - Such periods commence at the beginning of a calendar year, regardless of when the last LYC Guest Card was issued.
 - A Guest Card may be extended at the discretion of General Manager.

~DRESS CODE~

MUST KNOW BEFORE YOU GO:

- Gentleman may not wear hats, caps, or visors inside the Clubhouse, except for religious or medical purposes. Ladies may wear dressy hats, but not sports caps.
- Speaking on cellular phones is prohibited in the interior portions of the clubhouse and exterior dining areas.
- The required attire for gentlemen is best described as “Club Casual” – collared shirts, slacks, Bermuda-length dress shorts, and neat denim. Similar attire is requested for ladies and children.
