11. RISK STATEMENT

The responsibility for a boat's decision to participate in a race or to continue to race is hers alone. It is the sole responsibility of each participant to decide whether or not to start or continue a race, or to participate or continue to participate in any on-the-water event. Competitors participate in Sarasota Sailing Squadron events entirely at their own risk. See RRS 3 Decision to Race. By participating in this event each competitor agrees and acknowledges that sailing is a potentially dangerous activity with inherent risks. These risks include strong winds and rough seas, sudden changes in weather, failure of equipment, boat handling errors, poor seamanship by other boats, loss of balance on an unstable platform and fatigue resulting in increased risk of injury. Inherent in the sport of sailing is the risk of permanent, catastrophic injury or death by drowning, trauma, hypothermia or other causes. Each competitor, by participation, agrees to sail and utilize the Sarasota Sailing Squadron facilities at his/her own risk. Neither the Sarasota Sailing Squadron nor persons assisting in the conduct of races or other on-the-water activities shall be liable for damage or injuries incurred during participation in racing or other activities. It is known and understood that all participants, skippers, crew, and guests, accept the Sailing Instructions and all personal risks.

12. INSURANCE

The organizing authority recommends that each competitor shall be insured with valid third-party liability insurance
