Daysailer Fleet 128 Championship Trophy

The purpose of this trophy is to encourage friendly competition among the fleet members. The fleet championship is open to Day Sailer class yachts whose skipper are current members in good standing of the Day Sailer Association and Fleet 128. Fleet 128 was chartered in 1992 at the National Daysailer Regatta in Eugene, Oregon. The California Sea Otter was designated the fleet mascot. In 1999, Pat Rygh was "commissioned" to create a fleet trophy. Fleet 128 was recognized as the largest Day Sailer fleet in the country at the 2002 National Day Sailer Regatta. The trophy will be awarded annually. It will be left to the active group involved at the time to decide the rules of competition for the DaySailer Fleet 128 Championship.

The trophy is to be kept in the clubhouse trophy case, except when it is being engraved or presented.
