Conditions and Obligations

Conditions

The World Sailing Sailor Categorization Code (World Sailing Regulation 22) applies to your application and your relationship with the Categorization Authority. If you submit your application for review, you will be deemed to agree to be governed by the Code and these conditions

1. The information you supply may be held and stored on computer and will be processed by the Categorization Authority for the purposes of reviewing your Categorization under the Code and any subsequent categorization issues.
2. You agree that the Categorization Authority may publish on the internet your name, designated country, user ID, categorization status and categorization expiry date.
3. You will inform the Categorization Authority (and any relevant organising authority) as soon as possible of any incorrect information in this application (or any changes in your circumstances) which might affect your categorization and in any event no later than the first race of any particular event.
4. You agree that the Categorization Authority may seek any information it needs from any source at any time to verify your categorization without further recourse to you.
5. The Categorization Authority does not accept any liability for any losses, expenses or damages incurred by a Competitor as a result of the Categorization Authority exercising its powers under the Code in good faith.

Obligations

The Code also sets out the responsibilities of sailors applying for and holding categorizations. By submitting your application

1. You agree that you will not hold, nor apply for, more than one categorization.
2. You certify that you do not have more than one World Sailing ID (also known as Sailor ID).
3. You agree that you will not take any action or act in a manner which is contrary to the spirit or purposes of the Code or which is a subterfuge (a concealment or evasion) in circumventing the Code.
4. You agree, at all times, to fully and freely disclose all information which is relevant to the Categorization Authority (whether or not you are specifically asked for the information).

5. You agree you will not provide (and have not provided) the Categorization Authority with information that is false, misleading or potentially misleading.
6. You agree you will immediately notify the Categorization Authority of any change in your circumstances which affects, or may affect, your categorization status.
7. If you are a Group 1 competitor, you will not engage in any activities which are incompatible with Group 1 status unless you have notified the Categorization Authority of a potential change of categorization.

You agree that you have complied with the above conditions in relation to this application and that it has been personally completed by you. Breaching these requirements may be regarded as Gross Misconduct under rule 69 of the Racing Rules of Sailing and may lead to disciplinary proceedings against you.

By submitting this application, you submit to the jurisdiction of the Categorization Authority as set out in rule 69 of the Racing Rules of Sailing 2021 - 2024 and additionally as established in its disciplinary rules and procedures. The disciplinary rules and procedures can be found here.

Disciplinary Rules

Sailors found to have committed Gross Misconduct under rule 69 may have their categorization revoked, be fined, banned from competing in a particular class or event or may, in serious cases, be banned from racing either temporarily or permanently.

Tick the 'I agree and accept' box if you agree to the above statements.
