

Take a Shuttle Bus!

From St Michaels to Annapolis

Ride in safety and luxury aboard a shuttle bus provided by

You know the drill: planning for the race from Annapolis to Miles River takes time and lots of coordination. Finding the right crew often means finding crew who can spend two days with the boat on a Memorial Day weekend. If crew does need to get back home on Saturday, the only option is to spend a lot of time shuttling cars over the Bridge on the busiest weekend of the year.

Fight the traffic no more!
