The Regatta will be governed by the 2013-2016 Racing Rules of Sailing. All boats shall comply with N.C. Wildlife Commission and U.S. Coast Guard safety regulations.

Expected One-Design classes (SJ21, Sunfish, FJs, Tanzers, 420s, Ensigns, etc.) will race near the Union Point waterfront on the Neuse River. Multiple races are planned.

A limited number of boats (Sunfish, FJs, and 420s) will be available for use for experienced sailors wanting to participate-contact Jim Edwards at Bow to Stern Sailing School in Oriental for more information - 252 474 600; sailingschool@aol.com

Contact the Edward Teach Youth Sailing Association (ETYSA) at <http://etysa.org> to find out about the possibility of a free and fun sailboat race and exhibition of youth sailing and the ETYSA Optimist fleet.

Classes. A minimum of two boats will constitute a class. There will be classes for spinnaker and non spinnaker. Each fleet may be broken into multiple classes depending on the number of entries, at the discretion of the Principal Race Officer.

Scoring. Cinco de Mayo Regatta - One design racing scoring

Disclaimer of Liability. Competitors participate in the regatta entirely at their own risk. See Rule 4, Decision to Race. The organizing authority will not accept any liability for material damage or personal injury or death sustained in conjunction with or prior to, during or after the regatta. Each participating boat shall either self insure or carry adequate third party insurance to cover their liability.

Launching: NYRA will endeavor to offer towing to boats without motor power who launch at Lawson's Creek Marina. Boats should be prepared to launch ASAP immediately after the Competitors' Meeting.
