

LAUDERDALE YACHT CLUB 2015 SUMMER SAILING:

The Summer Sailing Program is open to children of both Members and Non - Members. Non - Member children must be sponsored by an active Member to be eligible for participation. All Non - Members must pay in advance with a check. All sailors are required to bring their own Coast Guard Type III approved life jacket.

MERCURY MENTORS - Introduction to Seamanship

Designed to introduce children ages 5-7 years old to water and the sport of sailing. This one of a kind program is taught in 15' Mercury dinghies with a coach on board. Coach/sailor ratio will be 1:4. Children will learn life skills such as respect for others and equipment, communication, problem solving, and a positive attitude.

BEGINNER OPTI - Learn to Sail in an Optimist Dinghy

For children, ages 8-12 years old, with little or no previous experience. Through fun games and activities, sailors will learn how to identify wind direction, points of sail, basic boat handling skills, rules of the road, and water safety.

GREEN FLEET - Intermediate Optimist Dinghy

This course is designed for sailors who have completed a previous summer or season of sailing and would like to continue advancing in their knowledge and skills and gain an introduction to racing.

420 LEARN TO SAIL - Learn to Sail in a 420

For children, ages 8-12 years old and for teenagers, ages 13-16 years old, with little or no previous experience. Sailors will learn to sail in a doublehanded (two person) boat. Through fun activities, sailors learn to identify wind direction, points of sail, basic boat handling skills, rules of the road, and water safety.
